$\mathbb{Z}^2$ actions, weak closure and partial mixing

Jacek Andrzej Serafin (Wrocław University of Technology)

(joint work with Tomasz Downarowicz)

We present an example of rank-one and partially mixing $\mathbb{Z}^2$-action, which possesses a non-rigid factor and for which the Weak Closure Theorem fails. This is in contrast to one-dimensional actions, which cannot display this type of behavior.