

In this talk, I will discuss some questions related to the nonlinear theory of electromagnetism formulated by Born and Infeld in 1934.

I will focus on the set of PDEs arising from this theory and mainly on the static regime.

I will also address the solvability of an approximated Born-Infeld equation with sources and some related open questions.