

The Ball-Evans' problem

Daniel Campbell

FAU Erlangen, Germany
`campbell@math.fau.de`

We overview a number of recent results in the topic of the approximation of homeomorphisms with diffeomorphisms, a challenging problem attributed to Ball and Evans. We also discuss motivation and applications of the results and emphasise some of the interesting open questions in the area.