

ON GAUSSIAN MULTIPLICATIVE CHAOS AND THE RIEMANN ZETA FUNCTION

EERO SAKSMAN

We recall some basic properties of Gaussian multiplicative chaos and describe our recent results on its connection to the functional statistics of the Riemann zeta function on the critical line (and to that of random unitary matrices). The talk is based on joint work with Christian Webb (Aalto University).