Stochastic analysis without probability - some recent developments

Rafal M. Lochowski

In my talk I will refer on some recent developments in the model-free finance and Itô calculus on deterministic paths possessing quadratic variation along some sequence of partitions. In particular I will address the problem of uniqueness of quadratic variation in Vovk's outer measure for càdlàg paths.