I will present a framework inspired by concepts from linear algebra that allows for a unified exposition of the following three basic geometries:

a. topology,

b. uniform category (i.e. small scale geometry),

c. large scale geometry.