

Alexandre Eremenko

Purdue University

Topics in Geometric Function Theory

Some classical and modern results related to geometric theory of meromorphic functions in the plane will be discussed (asymptotic values, type problem, Speiser class, quasiconformal surgery). Some topics involve application of (anti-)holomorphic dynamics to solving algebraic and transcendental equations.