

Ryaard Engelking

RYSZARD ENGELKING

16 November 1935 — 16 November 2023

Professor Engelking served as the editor-in-chief of Fundamenta Mathematicæ from 1982 to 1994, and as an editorial board member from 1971 to 2006.

He continued to help later with his knowledge and warm advice.

He will be remembered for his work in general topology, to which he devoted widely known monographs. In Poland, he is also known as the author of award-winning translations of classics of French literature.

His modesty, directness and integrity of character earned him universal respect.