

The ultrametric Mahler measure is a natural companion to the metric Mahler measure of Dubickas and Smyth. We will give the basic definitions and background regarding these two functions. Further, we show that the value of the ultrametric Mahler measure can be found by searching a finite subset of  $\overline{\mathbb{Q}}$ . In some quadratic cases, our method allows us to make explicit computations.