

We give a sufficient and necessary condition when the ideal pointwise convergence implies the ideal equal (aka quasi-normal) convergence. The characterization is expressed in terms of a cardinal coefficient related to the bounding number \mathfrak{b} . We examine this coefficient for nice ideals. This is joint work with Marcin Staniszewski.