Restaurants:

- 1 Mandala (Indian-Thai-Nepalese; A good Indian restaurant, lunch menu is quick, other dishes need more time. Good for vegetarians, not so perfect for vegans (make sure that your dish has no cream, cheese, butter, most vegetarian dishes can have tofu instead of cheese). Not very easy to find, but worth it: walk on Emilii Platter and look west (if you are walking from the institute, this is on your left); at some point there is a clearance between blocks of flats with a fence, you must go through the gate there and then left);
- 2 Sofra Café & Restaurant (Turkish)
- 3 Beirut hummus & music bar (Lebanese)
- 4 Manekin (pancakes), ORZO (burgers, pasta, pizza)
- 6 U Szwejka (Czech), Chłopskie Jadło (Polish)
- 7 Pelną Para (excellent Asian style dumplings, recommended)
- 9 Que Huong (Vietnamese)
- 10 Pizza
- 11 Wi Taj (Thai)
- 12 Sexy Duck (Italian)
- 13 Chwast Food (vegan burgers, the closest vegan place to IMPAN, pretty quick service and cheap)
- 14 Wegeguru (vegan lunch and dinner, fancy and good, more expensive, not so quick, but the food is worth waiting)
- 15 Kuchnia Konfliktu (a very small vegetarian and vegan place, with very good food. It is run by immigrants and refugees, who want settle down in Poland and integrate with local community, so the food is international, but every day from another region of the world)
- 16 Tel Aviv (a fancy restaurant (vegan). Rather expensive)
- 17 Loving Hut (Asian vegan, place, lots of tofu and its variants, usually stir-fried, usually quick to serve)
- 18 Groole (potato place, just outside the institute (turn left), vegi options available)
- 19 Bar Hoa Lan (Vietnamese place, just outside the institute (turn right), vegi options available, cheap)
- 20 Hala Koszyki (lots of food courts, take-aways and bars, also other shops)
- 21 Warung Jakarta (Indonesian, lunch offer)
